The Supreme Court is not working for all of us: It is stacked against us to favor the wealthy and powerful. The vacancy created by Justice Stephen Breyer's retirement should be filled by a fair-minded justice who will put equal justice first and not pick and choose whose rights they care about. #ConfirmJackson

For too long, wealthy and powerful special interests have rigged the system to favor corporations instead of people. We need a justice who will not pick and choose whose rights they care about and will put equal justice first. Confirming Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson will move us closer to a Supreme Court that better represents all people in America.
