
Roe 2023: Our Fight Continues

Overturing Roe v. Wade put Iowans in a precarious position. It is still safe and legal to access abortion in Iowa. Unfortunately, we know Governor Reynolds and the Republican-led Legislature are a threat to our reproductive rights. Options for reproductive care and abortion are limited in Iowa because of the significant budget cuts they have made. And the threat of a constitutional amendment banning abortion in Iowa looms on the horizon.

The majority of Iowans know limiting or criminalizing abortion lacks common sense. We need elected officials who respect the will of the people and will make reproductive freedom the law of the land.

Talking Points

- Abortion is still safe and legal in Iowa and we are fighting to keep it that way.
- We are fighting to protect our freedoms from politicians committed to rescinding them. Who attempts to divide us and legislate for the wealthy few.
- Certain Republicans have fought Roe for years. Sen. Grassley stacked the Court and Gov. Reynolds has committed to banning abortion. No exceptions.
- We all care about someone who has had or will have an abortion. We must ensure everyone has access to the care they need. Taking our rights away won't end abortions. It will make abortions harder to access for people with fewer resources.
- Limiting access to abortion puts pregnant people in danger and puts their lives at risk.
- Denying access to safe, legal abortions strips Iowans of their fundamental rights.
- No matter who you are or where you live, Iowans support the freedom to decide for ourselves. We must fight to keep abortion from becoming a crime in Iowa.

- I believe that no matter our income or where we live, Iowans deserve the freedom to access safe and legal abortion! It's time our politicians get their hands off our bodies & let us decide our own futures. #Iowa
- 50 years ago, #Roe ensured that we could make our own reproductive decisions. This year, Gov. Reynolds & SCOTUS turned back the clock to take these freedoms away. But, we won't stop fighting. #AbortionIsHealthCare
